training & assessment

Training is delivered three days per week 9.30am to 3.30pm with durations ranging from 23 to 36 weeks. Throughout your training you will be assessed on practical skills and your background knowledge and understanding. During the programme you will build up a portfolio of evidence which will provide you with a personal record of all your assessment and achievements.

care, guidance and support

Michael John Academy are recognised for outstanding student support and if during your initial assessment we feel you would benefit from additional help a package of support will be arranged and personalised to your needs.

employment

As the ultimate goal is to support you to work in the Hair or Beauty Industry, we will encourage you during the programme to undertake a workplacement or voluntary work with a salon employer. This helps you to understand what is expected in a 'real' commercial environment and can aid progression.

progression

When you have completed your Level 2 programme you may wish to progress on to:

- Level 3 Programme in your sector choice
- An Advanced Apprenticeship
- Employment in the Industry

If you have completed a Level 3 programme you may wish to progress on to

- Level 4 Diploma in Salon Management practice and Advanced techniques in the Hair & Beauty Sector
- Employment in the Industry

funding

Adult Learning programmes are co-funded by the Skills Funding Agency (subject to learner eligibility) and Level 3 courses can be funded for Adults over 24 via 24+ Advanced Learning Loans.
