

barbering apprenticeship course factsheet

course overview

A barbering apprenticeship is one of the best ways of training to become a barber. Apart from it being the only route which enables you to EARN WHILE YOU LEARN, because all apprentices are employed from day one, you will develop real, practical and commercial skills highly valued by employers. In the majority of cases you will attend a michael john academy one day per week and work within the Industry for the remainder of your working week. If you have previous experience we can support you to progress more rapidly, however you should expect your apprenticeship to last at least twelve months with most course durations lasting between 12 – 14 months. Some of the subjects and skills covered within your apprenticeship include:

- Health and Safety
- Advising and consulting with clients
- Shampooing, conditioning and treating the hair and scalp
- Cutting hair using basic barbering techniques
- Cutting facial hair to shape using basic techniques
- Drying and finishing men's hair
- Promoting additional services or products to clients
- Creating basic patterns in the hair
- Client care and customer service

You will also be given a real insight into the Barbering Industry to include what employers will expect from you and how important it is to sustain your employment so you can progress even further in this exciting and innovative career choice.

qualification

On successful completion of your barbering apprenticeship framework, you will have achieved Qualifications in:

- City & Guilds Barbering NVQ/Diploma Level 2
- Level 1 Functional Skills in English
- Level 1 Functional Skills in Maths
- A Barbering Intermediate Apprenticeship Framework Completion Certificate

You will also have a good understanding of Employment Rights and Responsibilities and you will have further developed your personal learning and thinking skills. Best of all YOU will be a competent junior barber, with a record of sustainable employment in the Industry, all of which will mean you are a highly valued asset to the barbering profession.

training & assessment

Throughout your apprenticeship you will be assessed on your practical skills and your background knowledge and understanding of each subject. Assessment will take place in the academy and within your salon workplace. During the course you will build up a portfolio of evidence and achievement. Michael John Academy specialise in all aspects of Hair and Beauty, so throughout your apprenticeship there will be opportunities for you to participate in a range of short specialist courses, Industry excursions and competitive events.

care, guidance and support

Achieving a Level 2 Apprenticeship is seen as equivalent to achieving 5 GCSE's grade A-C and often apprentices require additional care, guidance or support. Michael John Academy are recognised for providing outstanding support to students and if during your initial assessment we feel you would benefit from additional help a package of support will be arranged and personalised to your needs.

employment

Apprentices are employed either on a full or part time basis, dependant on the needs of either the employer or apprentice. If you are aged 16-18 or if you are 19+ and in the first year of your apprenticeship you will earn the Apprenticeship National Minimum Wage rate per hour. After that the National Minimum Wage for your age group applies. Most apprentices work full-time 30+ hours per week and academy hours (generally 9.30 – 3.30pm one day per week) will be included within your hours of employment.

Your employer will provide you with a contract of employment and designate a salon supervisor to mentor and guide you in the workplace. Please be aware your employer is committing their time and money to your training and employment in anticipation of you becoming competent and able to contribute to the salons financial income. If you value and work well for your employer it is most likely that on successful completion of your apprenticeship your employer will not want to lose you and will want to offer you a permanent position. Michael John Academy works with a large number of employers and will help you to secure employment. As employment cannot be guaranteed, Michael John Academy also offers a range of pre-employment programmes which can help you to build up employability skills until you successfully gain employment in the Industry.

progression

- When you have completed your Level 2 Apprenticeship you may wish to progress on to:
- Level 3 Advanced Apprenticeship in Barbering
