training & assessment

Your first 5 weeks training is focused on improving your 'employability / work preparation skills' and will be spent in a Michael John Training Academy over four days per week from 9.30am to 3.30pm. During this period you will visit your workplace and on week six you will be attending the academy two days per week and your workplacement a minimum of two days per week. Training and Assessment will support you to provide 'value' in your workplace and your workplace provider/ employer will be encouraged to offer you a full apprenticeship at the earliest opportunity. Traineeships durations will range from two to six months maximum.

care, guidance and support

Michael John Academy are recognised for outstanding student support and if during your initial assessment we feel you would benefit from additional help a package of support will be arranged and personalised to your needs.

employment

As the ultimate goal is to support you into an Employed Apprenticeship in the Hair or Beauty Industry, before you commence the programme we will have agreed with and identified to you, your workplacement provider. It is really important that you do your best to add value to their salon and commercial business, in order to be able to offer you a workplacement the provider will have committed to provide you with either an Apprenticeship or a reference to support you to achieve an apprenticeship when your traineeship ends.

progression

When you have completed your Traineeship you will progress on to:

- Level 2 Intermediate Apprenticeship in the sector choice of Hairdressing; Barbering; Beauty Therapy OR Nail Services.

funding

Traineeships are fully-funded by the Education Funding Agency for 16 to 18 year olds and the Skills Funding Agency for 19 – 24 year olds (subject to learner eligibility).
